

St. Johnsbury

COMMENCED, AUGUST 8, 1837.

THE CALEDONIAN,
ST. JOHNSBURY, VT.

L. STONE & CO., Proprietors.

200 Main Street North of Court House.

Call for our new paper—$2.00

Postage included.

DAVIS & BRADFORD, Publishers.

The news on the Caledonian reaches every part of the United States, and is well received by all who appreciate its value.

Editorial Notices.—In the other edition of the Caledonian, I addressed a letter to the editor of the "Daily News," of Boston, in which I mentioned his article on the "Daily News," in which he addressed me in the following language: "We have never made the mistake of publishing any article from you, or of giving you any chance of getting published, as we do not consider it a good idea to give a platform to any one who does not deserve it."

Reporting of all kinds done by the political and other leaders in our state.

Letters of Advertising.

Letters of Advertising.